Jun Minorikawa appointed as Japan Country Manager

Japan, July 6th, 2022 – Coface announces today the appointment of Jun Minorikawa as Japan Country Manager effective as of today. In addition to the management and development of Coface's branch in Japan, Jun will be in charge of further expanding the portfolio of Japanese Multinationals clients globally.

Based in Tokyo, he reports to Hugh Burke, CEO of Coface for Asia Pacific and replaces Shinkichi Hayashi who has greatly contributed to development of Coface and has decided to retire.

Jun has over 18 years of experience in business development, strategic planning, and operational management. He joined Coface North America in 2019 as Head of Coface Japanese Solutions in the region, where he successfully built and managed a portfolio of Japanese clients. Prior to that he worked for AON for 15 years.

Jun holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Global Studies from Sonoma State University, USA.

Jun's valuable experience and his strong leadership will be a great asset to better serve our customers in Japan and in the Japanese Solutions network.
